Sarah Nappa is a small business owner, chef, and service/wine industry professional with a broad agricultural background and experience in educational development. Sarah is owner and farm operator of her home Farm and B&B in Southold with her husband, Anthony, and young sons, Leo and Enzo.

Asked about why she's running, Sarah says, "I'm running to give a fresh perspective on many issues that concern our community on the North Fork," Sarah said. "The business community feels that this town isn't working for them. Using my extensive knowledge, expertise, and first-hand experience in several of the key industries in Southold Town I hope to make the government work to keep our businesses here."
